As the ritual review process continues in tandem with Rules, the Design team has shifted focus on the ongoing “Project Monster Desk”. The team spent time this month studying a copy of related 2.0 materials provided by the Alliance GM.

Documentation

The Documentation team has been working on integrating the 2.1 beta ruleset into the updated 2.0 rulebook draft that the team has been working on for a year, with a target end date of August.

The team is currently recruiting, and are specifically searching for a typist. If you’d like to get involved, email Albert at dragonstamps@alliancelarp.com.

The summer is now in full swing and many chapters are running 2.1 playtest events. The current priority of the national staff is to get the 2.1 ruleset right, so we strongly encourage everyone participating in a playtest to provide feedback on their experiences.
